Reliance WorstedrCompany Establishes Sewing Department in Olneyville-Local Notes.

The Olne, wife, R. I. correspondent of the Providence Tribune writes. The Reliance Worsted mills of Norwich have plantaed the establishment of a new sewing department in Oineyville and representatives have hired the second flat of the second floor of 7 Stokes street for a location. Hugh Chrisin of Black-stone will be in charge of the depart-ment and the first installment of cloth will be 200 deeps ment and the first installment of cloth will be 26a chits. John Lenahan, boss finisher at the mid, is a local man and with a nother mill representative visited here jesterday and called on John O'Cormell, who has charge of the Stokes stuber property, and is also much interested in the locating of new industries, especially in the textile line. When the want was made known Mr. O'Coincell was bound to find a location in order that local people will jet the benefit of the opportunity to work. The Reliance is not only run ping night and day, but looms in another mill have been leased, and the rural to have the cloth finished prompted the establishment of a sewing department in this section, where there is an abundance of unemployed help.

PHOLY NAME SOCIETY.

Two Hundred Boys of St. Mary's Parish Unite in Forming a Junior

If you invitation of Fathers Smith and Kennedy to establish a junior braiseh of the Holy Name society, in St. Mary's parish, 200 boys, ranging ir, rage from 10 to 16 years, responded to the call for the meeting held in this assembly rooms of the church on Wednesday afternoon at 4.15 o'clock. Father Kennedy outlined the prin-Aples of the society in an editying guanner, which seemed to enthuse the storys over the object of the organization. The principles of the society are: (1) Refraing from blusphemy and cursing, on the part of the individual: (2), curbing the use of such language by others. (3) quarterly communion of the organization in a body. The insignia of the organization is to be worn on the lapse of the coat of each preuper. As a public sendorsment of member, as a public endorsement of its principles.

The boys elected temporary officers as follows: Francis Murths, Jr., pres-ident; Dominick Oulette, secretary. It is Father Kennedy's intention to divide the organization into squads of 15 or 20 members and to appoint a captain over each squad, who will be responsible for their work, both as to the performance of the society's duties, and the bringing in of recruits. Later on a drill master is to be secured who will enlighten the boys on military tactics. Social festores will also be added during the wintermenties. captain over each sound, who

Joseph A. Donnelly, president of the senior branch of the society's work favored the boys with a short talk on the work which the organization has accomplished during the seven years of its existence. At the close everyone seemed well pleased with the result of the meeting and with the possibilities. sibilities in view for the new branch of the society.

MANY CREDITORS HERE OF PUTNAM BANKRUPT

Following up his declaration that he had placed before State's Attorney Alcorn of Hartford certain evidence of corrupt practices at the republican state convention in Hartford, George L. Fox of New Haven has given out the following statement:

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 31, 1919.

Mr. Alcorn in his defense of his action with regard to my complaints reported in the Hartford Times is not just and fair to me. I have never asked him to prosecute on the evidence I have submitted. I have simply asked him to investigate the statements of alleged bribery and if the facts warranied it to arrest and prosecute the guility parties to the full extent of the law. That is the way he does in other cases, and it is the way he should do now. If other state's aitorneys willingly comply with my requests I see no reason why he should not do so. In order that the public may see whether he has done his dity. I propose to state in full the first case which I brought before him and asked him to investigate thoroughly.

State's Attorney Hull of New London county gave me these facts with the understanding that I was to com-Who Have Unsecured Claims. oughly.

State's Attorney Hull of New London county gave me these facts with the understanding that I was to communicate them to Mr. Alcorn. John J. Lawless said to Mr. Hull in my presence over the telephone that three times at Hartford a man named three times at Hartford a man named Russensh of Deen River, a delegate cott. Wethersfield, $196.90; Leroy M.

my presence over the telephone that three times at Hartford a man named Burroughs of Deep River, a delegate to the convention from Saybrook, said to him, "If you will change your vote from Lake to Goodwin there will be a handsome present for you." These facts were communicated to Mr. Alcorn in a letter written by me Sunday night, October 23, yet he has taken no steps in the matter.

I have assured Mr. Alcorn that Mr. Hull says that Mr. Lawless, who is a lawyer of the best standing in New London, will testify in court to what he has said to Mr. Hull, but that does not seem to affect Mr. Alcorn.

If this is not evidence warranting investigation, then I do not know what is. I have somply asked Mr. Alcorn to investigate secretly in any way that he pleases the alleged offenses which I bring to him, but I have never had a single line from him in reply. In my first interview with him I urged him to make use of the method of investigation provided in chapter 1881 of the Revised Statutes, but he would not do so.

Not So, Says Mr. Burroughs.

"It's a fabrication." was the reply of Mr. Burroughs, when asked about it. He said that he had talked with Mr. Lawless in a friendly way at the Second Congregational church, A. N. Miner, frustee, Burnside, $511.89 George Webster or Margaret Webster It. He said that he had talked with Mr. Lawless in a friendly way at the time of the convention. ACUTE SKIN TORMENT

"My hands and arms, right up to the elbows, broke out with large blisters, some an inch across. I need not tell any sufferer from distressing skin complaints what I went through. The irritation almost drove me mad. I became an out-patient of a London hospital and after a fortnight's attendance I was seen by a skin specialist who told me the complaint was psoriasis. The irritation was not allayed at all. Later the disease took a more serious form, affecting my neck and face as well as my hands and arms. My neck was covered and sometimes my eyes were so badly swollen that I could scarcely see. Irritation is too mild a word to describe my suffering, it was excruciating agony. I obtained some Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura Ointment and was especially pleased with the Ointment, which immediately allayed the itching and caused the sores to heal steadily and surely. In three weeks I was completely cured and there has been no return of the complaint. Arthur Duncan, Bridgend, Wales, Jan. 16, 1909." Cuticura sold by druggists everywhere,
